

Kathleen Ward

ADA & ADE Instructor

- ❖ 2010-present: “Alisa’s Dance Academy” & “Austin’s Dance Elite” – Instructor
- ❖ Holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance/Ballet Performance from The University of Oklahoma and received The Terpsichore Dance Service Award for Excellence.
- ❖ Apprenticed member of New Jersey Ballet, and a company member of the Missouri Concert Ballet and Oklahoma Festival Ballet.
- ❖ Ballet and Musical Theater features include: The Spanish Variation from “The Nutcracker” with American Ballet Theater Principal Dancer Jock Soto, Carlotta Grisi in “Pas de Quatre”, Dream Laurey and Lead Can-Can Dancer in “Oklahoma!”, Kitri in “Don Quixote”, Dew Drop Fairy in “The Nutcracker”, Kristine DeLuca from “A Chorus Line”.
- ❖ Coached, restaged and choreographed many ballets and summer musicals, including “The King and I” and “West Side Story”.
- ❖ Guest Artist appearances with Ballet Austin, as Frau Silberhaus in “The Nutcracker” and a Courtesan in “The Sleeping Beauty”.
- ❖ Her most instrumental instructors include: Conrad Ludlow, Alaine Haubert, Carolyn Clark, Joseph Carow, Edward Villella, Choo San Goh, Bene Arnold, Lupe Serrano and Melissa Hayden; as well as Miguel Terekhov and Yvonne Chouteau, both original members of The Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.